Measuring Practice with MCR Rheometers and RheoCompass Software

Venue: Arla Innovation Center
Agro Food Park 19
Aarhus, Denmark
25th of October 2018

Dear valued customers,

Anton Paar Nordic AB invites you to the Rheology and Tribology seminar 2018 together with Arla Innovation Center. This workshop is targeted to people who are interested in a one-day measuring practice combined with RheoCompass training event.

Mr Florian Rummel

Florian Rummel studied food technology and biotechnology at Technical University of Munich, Germany. During his studies he worked at August Storck KG and Netzsch-Feinmahltechnik GmbH in the fields of thermal and mechanical processing of confectionery products. He did his master thesis on chocolate rheology at the laboratory of food process engineering at ETH Zurich, Switzerland. Since 2016, Florian is international product specialist for tribology and rheology at Anton Paar GmbH. He gives guest lectures at different universities and presents current rheological and tribological studies at international conferences.

We will provide technical insights into the following topics during this seminar:
